ALL DOUBT OF DISCOVERY SWEEP AWAY

START OF CAPTAIN AMUNDSEN TELLS OF DASH TO THE POLE

POLE FOUND LOCATED ON HUGE
PLATEAU AND THE COUNTRY
SURROUNDING IS APPARENTLY UNINHABITED.

LONDON, March 9.—Captain
Amundsen's story of the discovery of the north pole is so complete and convincing that all doubts of its accuracy have today been swept away.

According to Amundsen's story the first dash for the pole was made with ease, as compared with the previous "suffered in reaching" the north pole.

When Capt. Amundsen reached the southern point of the globe he found the pole was situated on a large plateau, 10,000 feet above the sea level on an Antarctic continent.

The temperature at the pole, December 1, was fine and four-tenths below zero and the lowest temperature experienced was 70 degrees below.

The Antarctic continent is apparently uninhabited, as no mention is made of meeting with any natives.
The only mountain range and the most territory discovered is named after the king and queen of Norway.

The ground near the pole is described as wondrously hollow, and the footsteps of the members of the party echoed as if they were walking on empty barrels.

No mention is made of Capt. Scott and the British expedition.

KILLS OWN SON FOR MONEY
THEN LEARNS HIS IDENTITY

FATHER CARRIES OUT WISHES OF MOTHER AND SISTER AND MURDERS HIS SON FOR PUR-POSE OF ROBBERY.

BERLIN, March 9.—A curious tragedy has been enacted at Parven-chre, a small Russian village near the frontier of Germany, a man having murdered his own son for the purpose of robbery without being aware of his identity.

The son arrived from America and demanded hospitality of his parents without disclosing his identity to them. He declared that he had made his fortune and that he had a large sum of money in his possession.

His mother and sister resolved to kill him, and got the father to do the deed. When the father's back was turned, the father dealt him a blow on the head with a hammer.
Death was instantaneous.

The body was disposed of. When the father went to the village inn, he was asked about his son, and seeing that he was ignorant of the name of his son, he was informed that the young man staying with him was his own son. The authorities discovered the crime and the whole family was arrested.

AVIATOR SALMET HURT
RETURNING TO LONDON.

LONDON, March 9.—Aviator Sal-
met, who made the sensational, no-
stop flight from London to Paris Thursday, was badly injured on the return trip today, when he descended near the Albert docks. The aero-plane machinery went wrong and he was compelled to come down.

MARCH ON MEXICO CITY HAS BEGUN

VANGUARD LEAVES CHIHUAHUA MAIN ARMY TO FOLLOW SOON

ADVANCE TROOPS CARRY REPAIR
OUTFIT TO BUILD RAILROAD AND ATTACK WILL TAKE PLACE ABOUT MONDAY.

CHIHUAHUA, March 9.—The march of the rebel army on the city of Mexico began today, when the vanguard of 800 rebels left this city headed toward the capital of the republic.

The advance troops carried a full repair outfit to repair and build a railroad line for the main army of 8,000 troops to follow. The army expects to reach the capital and begin the attack about Monday afternoon.

Rebels Loot Property—
MEXICO CITY, March 9.—The rebels are looting burning property and tormenting prisoners in a barbarous manner in northern Mexico. Fifty Spaniards have been killed at Torreon. At Jarez, near Zacatecas, 60 rebels have been killed in a battle with the Federals. In an ambucade at Union, in the state of Hidalgo, 33 rebels were killed. The city of Vera Cruz is under siege.

WRECK AT MOBILE IS FATAL
NUMBER OF PASSENGERS HURT

FAST TRAIN FROM NEW YORK TO NEW ORLEANS RUNS INTO STRING OF LUMBER CARS AND IS WRECKED.

MOBILE, Ala., March 9.—A fast
passenger train running between New York and New Orleans ran into a string of lumber cars here this morning and was wrecked. John Bryan, a passenger, was seriously injured, and Volney Hewitt, a railroader, was seriously hurt. Of the passengers, 15 were badly bruised
and shaken up.

UNITED STATES TROOPS
HURRIED TO TIEN TSIN.

MANILA, March 9.—Seventeen officers and 486 men of the 15th infantry sailed from here today to reinforce the legion guards at Tien Tsin.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Mulcrone and daughter of St. Ignace and Macinack Island, Mich., arrived yesterday afternoon and are guests at the City hotel. Mr. Mulcrone is an old friend of E. T. Conrad of this city and he and his family will probably remain here during this month.

If you don't trade with us we both lose money.

That New York state people who are now sojourning in Florida may consider themselves fortunate to be in the land of sunshine and flowers instead of in the home state at this time, is shown by a clipping from a late issue of the Buffalo Enquirer,
which says that robins, wild violets,
May flowers and warm sunshine will be in cold storage for some time yet,
and advises Buffalo people not to hook their fur coats at this time.

The clipping says: "Two degrees colder today indicates the present
chilly snap with which Buffaloesians
were greeted upon arising, yet there are those who say that the little spring robin has ventured to peep forth. However, Old King Winter will soon tell them to fly back to their cozy haunts for a month at least. The advance indications given yesterday of the storm coming eastward have been fully verified. At present the storm is stationary in the west, but by tomorrow it will have moved forward with astonishing velocity, accompanied by a heavy fall of snow. The prediction is for the local weather to continue cold."

MADE POWDER SECRETLY
EXPLOSION KILLS THREE
MADRID, March 9.—A telegram from Valencia states that the inhabitants of a house there have recently spent their time in manufacturing gunpowder secretly. Several days ago they were milling powder on a threshing ground behind the house.
Suddenly, owing to some unknown
cause, the powder exploded, horribly burning an old man, 70 years of age, and his two young sons. The scene was awful and the neighbors, who were aware of the secret manufacture were afraid to approach the place.

After considerable delay, in which the men's sufferings were prolonged, the three were carried to the hospital, where they all expired. The house took fire, and the contents also blew up. A government investigation is being made.

POURS OIL ON CLOTHES AND DIES IN CHURCH.

PARIS, March 9.—A young woman named Butand entered a church at Lyons, and stood for a few minutes near the baptismal font. While unobserved she produced a bottle of petroleum from under her cloak and poured the liquid over her clothing.
Then she set light to her oil-soaked garments, and in a few seconds was a mass of flames. Several persons rushed towards her but were unable to extinguish the fire, and the woman died almost immediately. It appears that her mind had been under the influence of some time and she recently stated that she was sure she would die as Joan of Arc did.

20 KILLED IN BAD FIRE IN CHICAGO

BLAZE STARTS ON SECOND FLOOR WHILE LODGERS ARE IN BED AND MANY ARE AT MERCY OF THE FLAMES.

CHICAGO, March 9.—In all 20
persons were killed in a fire which destroyed the Barnett hotel near the Harrison street police station today. Seven dead bodies had been recovered from the ruins of the hotel
at 10 o'clock this forenoon.

The blaze started on the second floor, where scores of lodgers were still in bed, and about the center of the building. There were no fire escapes on the front. The cry of fire threw the lodgers into a panic and 30 were seriously injured by being burned or in jumping.

The hotel was four stories high,
and those above the second floor
were at the mercy of the flames.
Many were rescued by ladders placed across the alley from the building of the McDonald Printing company to the hotel, and a number of lodgers
in trying to cross the ladders fell and were injured.

Death List Lowered—
CHICAGO, March 9.—Late this afternoon it was given out that seven are known to be dead, one killed by jumping, six burned to death. It is believed there are three others still in the ruins. Up to this time there are 25 missing.

DAILY STOCK MARKET REPORT.
NEW YORK, March 9.—Stocks opened irregular today. Amalgamated showed a point higher and Steel common was a fourth lower, but later recovered the loss. Reading was a fourth up. Cotton was steady, and two to seven lower on reports of better weather in the cotton belt.

Stocks closed steady. Cotton closed barely steady at net ten to 14 lower with May at $10.13 and July $10.55.

Wheat Opens Firm—
CHICAGO, March 9.—The wheat market opened firm at three-eighths
to a half higher, with May $1.04.
Provisions were firm with May hard $9.30, July pork $16.10, ribs $8.85.
Hogs were ten higher and cattle steady.

Wheat closed sharply higher at a cent and three-eighths to a cent
and three-fourths advance.

PRESIDENT IN CHICAGO
BIG SPEECH TONIGHT

CHICAGO, March 9.—President Taft is spending the day here today. He will deliver his keynote speech, the most important one of his trip, tonight at the Swedish-American republican league reception. Except for a short cheer given at the station on his arrival, little enthusiasm is being shown.

SHOOTING AT ATLANTA
NOW LAID TO A NEGRO.

ATLANTA, March 9.—The mystery
concerning the shooting of Eugene Grace, who accuses his wife, was deepened this morning when Recorder-Broyles received a letter from a negress, Hattie Gibbs, declaring her husband shot Grace and that he told her of the shooting. The defense claims to have a witness who saw a negro leave the Grace home after Mrs. Grace had left, and who heard the shot fired. The officers disbelieve the story, but the officers are searching for Gibbs. Grace is better today and may recover from the effects of the wound. The Grace family is wealthy.

STORIES OF NUDE WOMAN ARE TOLD

MYSTERIOUS STRANGER SEEN IN ROAD NEAR HOLLY HILL

SAID TO HAVE DISAPPEARED
INTO SWAMP BUT THOROUGH
SEARCH FAILS TO REVEAL DE-MENTED FEMALE.

Stories of a nude woman being seen in the main river road near Holly Hill last evening and again
this morning, caused considerable excitement in that vicinity and in Daytona today, and search of the woods and swamps in the vicinity in which she is alleged to have been seen by some children and a colored servant
was made this morning. No trace of the woman was found.

The woman is said to have been seen by the children of L. E. and T. H. Cave, Jr., and Margaret Johnson, of Midway, a colored girl employed at the Cave home.

The last seen of her this morning
she is said to have disappeared into the swamp, but search of the swamp failed to reveal any trace of the woman, whose strange actions give the belief her mind is unbalanced. No report of a woman being missing has been made to the local authorities,
and the identity of the woman seen
is a mystery.

REQUIREMENTS NECESSARY
TO VOTE IN THE PRIMARY

QUESTIONS OF LENGTH OF RES-IDENCE AND REGISTRATION
REQUIRED FOR QUALIFICATION
OF VOTERS.

In response to numerous inquiries about requirements of the law in regard to length of residence, payment of poll taxes and registration to qualify for the coming democratic primaries, the Daily News is able to give some information on the subject.

One year in the state, six months in the county, is necessary before a man 21 years of age is allowed to register.

For the purpose of voting at the primary, poll taxes must be paid not later than March 9, 1912. A man coming of age since January 1, 1911, is not required to pay a poll tax, but may vote after being registered. One who has been a resident of this county since January 1, 1910, is due two years' poll tax. One who has been a resident of this county since January 1, 1911, is due one year poll tax.

A registered voter 55 years of age,
is not required to pay poll tax in order to vote.

One who has been in the state of Florida one year, the past six months of which has been spent in this county, may register. Also one coming of age since January 1, 1911,
may register. One must be a native-born citizen of the United States, or be naturalized, before he can register.

The registration books were opened
March 4, 1912, and will close April 2, 1912.

All persons exempt from paying poll tax must secure an exemption certificate from the supervisor of registration before being allowed to vote.

HOTEL CLARENDON
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Potter gave a delightful dinner party Thursday evening at their cottage on Ocean boulevard, entertaining a party of ten. Mr. and Mrs. Potter's social functions are of the kind that linger in the memory of those who attend. They are lavish entertainers.
Two more women have been added to the number of those enjoying the excursions of Spring through the air, Mrs. Will W. Morrison of Toledo, Ohio, and her sister, Miss Helen Mitchell, having been passengers in the aeroplane during the past week. They express themselves highly pleased with the air trips. Both Mrs. Morrison and Miss Mitchell are spending their second season at the Clarendon and are popular among the guests.
Yesterday's arrivals at the Clarendon were L. B. Smith, Miss Gertrude Smith, Milwaukee, Miss Edna Brown, Rhineclander, Wis., Michael Danahy, Miss Jessie Danahy, Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Singer, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kline, child and maid, Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fowler, Rhineclander, N. Y.

Rich Find of Old Silver Coins.
More than 1,000 silver coins have been found in a field near Ridge, the oldest town in the west coast of Jutland, in Denmark. The coins are of the "short-cross" type, issued in England under Henry II., Richard I., John, and Henry III., but always bearing the name of Henry, and chiefly of the mints of London, Canterbury and Winchester.

Beyond His Comprehension.
"There is something mysterious about the word 'psychic,'" said the student of occult things. "Tea," replied the plain person; "and the most mysterious thing about it to me is the way they spell it!"—Sunny Stories.

THE DESPLAND.
Five hundred was played at the regular weekly card party at the Despland Thursday evening. After the playing refreshments were served. The ladies' prizes were won by the following: First, Mrs. A. F. Porter, Brooklyn; second, Mrs. W. H. Ellsworth, Milwaukee. Gentlemen's, first, James Risk, New York; second, H. Coleman, Dayton.
The Despland tennis tournament, a much looked forward to annual event, will commence next Monday and all who desire to play are expected to enter not later than today.
Arrivals yesterday at the Despland were N. W. Noage, Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Buckley, Swampscott, Mass., G. L. Atkins, W. D. Stark, Jacksonville.

CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY
SLAVERY IN ILLINOIS.
By A. W. MACY.
Although the Ordinance of 1787 prohibited slavery in the Northwest Territory, a tremendous effort was put forth to make Illinois a slave state. In 1810 there were in Illinois territory 160 slaves. In 1820 the number had increased to 817. Illinois was admitted to statehood in 1818, and the Constitution provided that "neither slavery nor involuntary servitude shall hereafter be introduced in this state." The proslavery men were determined to have this changed, but this could only be done by a convention called for the purpose. A convention could not be held unless a majority of the voters demanded it. After a bitter campaign lasting eighteen months the proposition to hold a convention was defeated, August 2, 1824. The vote stood: For the convention, 4,572; against, 5,540. After that the number of slaves in the state gradually decreased until in 1830 there were only 746; in 1840, less than 300, and in 1850 practically none. It is a curious fact, however, that the "Black Laws," designed to "regulate" slavery in Illinois, were not removed from the statute books till after the close of the Civil war, in 1865.

One of Life's Regrets.
Among the lesser regrets that mingle with graver sorrow for the friends of an earlier generation we have lost are our omissions to ask them so many questions they could have answered so easily and would have been pleased to be asked.—O. W. Holmes.

Dinner Adventures

Young Mrs. Wilson hurried guiltily through the door. This was the third time within a week that she had attended a reception and remained so long that her conscience, if not her husband, reproached her.

"I'll stay at home tomorrow and get up a regular dinner, coffee and all," she promised herself, pensively.

The dining room clock chimed half-past 1 as she opened her door. There was no time to change her dress, so, slipping a big apron over her dress, she flew into the kitchen. There she put on the apron, turned the heat on full blast under the oven and in ten minutes there was dropping biscuits into buttered pans.

The flow in and out of the kitchen and the dining room with the beautiful quickness and sureness that sometimes comes as a result of a happy, ready, witty, busy day. She felt somehow that dinner would be good, even though it was hurriedly prepared.

It was. The steak was broiled to perfection, the biscuits were so fluffy that even Mrs. Wilson was surprised. The coffee had permeated itself into some sort of nectar.

"Say, young lady," Wilson remarked as he hurried to his first biscuit, "this is a dinner that must have been inspired. Why?" he asked, looking at her with a questioning gaze.

"Oh, this isn't what I call a regular dinner," declared Mrs. Wilson, smiling. "I got in rather late from Mrs. Bentley's this afternoon and so I didn't have time to prepare a regular dinner."

"Well, if you can beat this dinner you're a wonder. Of course, I'll bring it home. I've been advising him to get married when he's looked about him, but he's not ready yet."

"Directly after Wilson's departure the next morning Mrs. Wilson sat down and put the outline of the dinner on paper. Everything worked out so smoothly and looked so well when written down that she felt as if the dinner was already laid prepared.

Her mind was easy when she picked up one of the new magazines. The stories were interesting. When finally she turned from them she discovered that it was too late to get several of the dinner essentials in time for them to be prepared properly.

With a good deal of reluctance she rearranged the dinner. As she was on her way to the telephone to order the new dinner materials the door opened and Mary Powers ran in, laughing at her bridal finery and fresh from a European honeymoon.

The sunny afternoon melted away and when Mary Powers had vanished young Mrs. Wilson stood in the middle of the floor and with trembling fingers for the second time to order the makings of "that dinner."

One wild look at the clock told her that the last delivery boy had gone on his last round. There wasn't even time for her to dress and run out after the necessary things.

A sick fear came upon her and she whispered hoarsely: "There's not a thing in the house!"

Her feet were dead weights, her head was incapable of thought and her hands moved mechanically in mad-dancing purposelessness.

Away up at the emergency shelf, where in a spirit of joking security her husband had put them, was the proverbial can of sardines and the pound of jam.

"Where's Mr. Bentley?" asked Mrs. Wilson in a hoarse whisper.

"Why, you see, he's—well, I'm awfully sorry that I can't tell you his whereabouts, but I had an awful cold—cough—cough, you know, my best summer—and I forgot about him. I missed my regular train, and I haven't heard from him since. I'm awfully sorry, but—"

Mrs. Wilson began to clear the table with cheerful rapidity.

"Never mind," she said, "I worked pretty hard over this dinner, but I can't exactly be called an inspired peasant."

War and the Rat

Man and the rat go everywhere and eat everything. They are the two creatures that crowd in houses and travel in ships. Each knows its order to the wall, but neither, except locally and for brief periods, has ever come near exterminating the other. The use of poison is greatly facilitating the fight going on against the rat.

His Age Against Him

That eighty-year-old New Yorker who had lived for seven years in the streets and was now in the poor house may die of the luxury of his new surroundings. He is prone to be changing his mode of life.

On Flossie's Advice

"Yes," said young Mrs. Tomlinson as she poured a glassful of water into a shallow bowl filled with blossoming bulbs, "they did bloom at last and they are pretty. But don't you ever let any one tell you what Flossie told me about them, for it isn't true."

"Chinese lilies or narcissus?" asked her visitor, as she stopped off her glasses and warmed her blue tipped fingers against the tea tray, all set for gentle leaving.

"I'm sure I don't know. I bought both kinds of bulbs and they got mixed, and now every bowl has some flowers with yellow centers and some that are white and everybody tells me a different story about which is which. But that doesn't matter nearly so much as the rest of it." Young Mrs. Tomlinson sank into her wicker chair and began to arrange the delicate tea cups, and after that she uncovered a pile of cheese sandwiches.

"It is all lovely," exclaimed her friend, "all—tea, cheese, sandwiches and flowers. I am cold and hungry, so hurry the tea, and do tell me what Flossie said that wasn't true."

"None of it was true—about the bulbs," declared young Mrs. Tomlinson, sternly. "And she started me on them, you know. She was here last summer when we gave our rubber plant to Aunt Sophie because Harry said it was too big to live with and looked so about it. I was sorry to see it go, for it was the only thing I ever made grow, and I have spent a fortune on ferns and various kinds of plants. They die the minute I touch them. So Flossie suggested bulbs. They were quite cheap, she said."

"Just get some cheap, plain glass bowls," said Flossie, "and you can cut enough pebbles this summer to fill them. Then get the bulbs—at 25 cents a dozen—and you have flowers for the entire winter. Plant them two weeks apart and then keep them in the dark for two weeks. In six weeks they bloom and you can keep taking out your bulbs as the old flowers die. It sounded delightful, so I decided to try it."

"That was in July. We were going north for the rest of the summer, so I just made a note of it and watched for pebbles. Whenever we were in swimming or were waiting by the lake I made everybody pick up pebbles for me. Harry said his pockets were full of stones all summer long, and he got awfully mad once because I emptied the cups out of a new glass but he put stones in, though I turned up the cups and they weren't hurt a bit."

"I brought back four boxes of stones—perfect beauties, blue and white and yellow and pink. Then I began to look up bowls. Flossie said the bowls would cost almost nothing at all, and I began to look for plain glass bowls. The cheap ones were beautiful pressed glass things and the only pretty ones were 10 cents each, so I got two of those and then looked at pottery bowls. Harry says that there's where I got my head, but I looked at the bowls as an investment. And I got some beauties. They cost more than the others, but I thought they were worth the money, and the big ones cost was just a few dollars, so I bought them."

"Then I got the bulbs. And instead of getting 25 cents a dozen they were twice as much. Flossie said I would be in the wrong place, but I didn't know that, and I had bought six bowls, so I had to have plenty of bulbs."

"About October 1 I began to set them out so they would begin blooming about November 1. I never have got over this part of it. Harry has always given his cups to me to plant in his basement one day and found me pebbles in those bowls and drove them all into the street."

"Harry wasn't an old cynic, but he simply wanted to go and gather more pebbles by the lake, which he might have done to save expense, and so I had to go back to the bulb store and buy more cups, commencing to make for me a new set."

"I finally got one bowl started in the dark in the most clever. There Harry found it before it was a week old and spilled it all over the silk drapes of his new tapestry. Of course, his father would be in as part of the expense. He never seemed to care for my bulb collection."

"That bowl was broken, and of course it was the latest, and the little tender sprouts were harmed, so I had to begin again. I took all the things out of the house and had the janitor put up some shelves, and it didn't cost much and was a splendid place for the bulbs."

"But all winter Harry has said that he hasn't been able to find a thing in his upper places. He's looked down a bit after the bulbs got to blooming—couldn't get his newspaper in a bowl one night, and then you really should have heard him rave, though it was just his own carelessness."

"Of course, I have learned a lot about bulbs. I tell Harry that next year when I have my equipment, everything will go much better. It is an investment, you see, so I must go on, for there are only the bulbs to buy."

"Do you ever want to try them, dear, come to the, or tell Harry. We know. Do hurry, dear."

Can't We Arranged

A credit check observed: "It does not matter when you take a bride, because you always find out her day that you have married some one else." To which every happy husband will confidently reply: "It is better to have the real woman you have married than of Harry the ideal girl you have agreed."

JUST GOSSIP BY THE GOSSIPER.

By those in a position to know it is claimed that the past month has been the greatest in the history of Daytona for the amount of property that has changed hands. If this fact means anything it means that next season will be the greatest in the history of the city and it means that confidence in the future of Daytona is increasing steadily all the time. Much of the property that has been sold recently is in the shape of building lots and local contractors now hold contracts or are drawing plans for a large number of new homes to be built during the summer, to be ready for the occupancy of the owners by the first of next season. That the coming summer will be a busy one in Daytona is shown by the fact that the contractors call for the greater number of these homes in Daytona and on the peninsula to be completed by the beginning of the season, the big, new hotel on Ridgewood avenue is to be finished during the summer, a number of the present hotels are to be enlarged and improved before the return of the tourists, as much work as possible on the new gas plant and the laying of the mains will be done this year, construction work on the water plants for Daytona Beach and Seabreeze will be started, and, altogether there will be a spirit of bustle seldom seen in this vicinity during the summer months. All indications point to a rapid growth for Daytona and vicinity during the coming years.

The presentation of the beautiful United States flag to the local lodge of Elks by the veterans of the Blue and the Gray this afternoon was a nice compliment to the wearers of the uniform, and the presentation showed the old soldiers appreciate a favor and do not easily forget a kindness. It was just at the time the veterans were in a quandary as to where they could hold the big campfire last month that the Elks stepped in with an invitation to use the beautiful new home on Volusia avenue for that purpose, and welcome. The use of the clubhouse, which is the most suitable place in the city for the holding of such a gathering, was entirely unsolicited by the veterans, which made the offer all the more appreciated. The use of the home was tendered to the survivors of the great Civil war by the Elks in a spirit of friendliness and without a thought of mercenary gain, and this spirit of friendliness is just as plainly shown by the veterans in the presentation of the flag this afternoon. The flag will be given a place of prominence in the new clubhouse.

Proof of Elephant's Sagacity.
Elephants are always quoted as being the most sagacious of animals. A story comes from Bombay, India, of one who saved the life of an artilleryman recently. The man was seated on the tumbrel of one of the guns, and fell off almost under the hind wheel. The elephant was just behind the gun and saw the danger the man was in. He lifted the wheel with his trunk, and kept it held up until the carriage had passed quite clear of the man. The act was witnessed by an officer of the artillery.

The Young Bride Again.
A dear little thing of Baltimore but recently married insisted that the marketing for their first dinner at home should be done by herself. "Nice quarter of lamb, ma'am," politely suggested the butcher when she had announced her intention of seeing that Henry was to have "just the very best dinner ever." "Nice quarter of lamb, ma'am." The bride's face wrinkled in thought. "But," said she, "there are only two of us! Don't you think an eighth would suffice?"

BY

JOHN T. WENYON.

The Massore Echo says: "Of all delightful things that have ever come to the lot of people in India, the listening to Prof. J. T. Wenyon's unique recitations at Christ Church Parish Room is one of them. Shakespeare, in the hands of this exponent is a revival of the late Sir Henry Irving's immortal rendering; while the miscellaneous pieces are so full of pathos, charm and culture that all who possess appreciative souls must be touched and delighted to the uttermost."

POVERTY SKATING CONTEST

AT THE ARCADE LAST NIGHT.

The skating contest in poverty costume at the Arcade last night was largely attended, the hall being filled to its utmost capacity with spectators while quite a number in poverty costumes of all descriptions, including Mutt and Jeff, took active part in the contest. After the contest the floor was crowded with skaters. The names of the prize winners in the contest could not be obtained this morning. The special feature of the evening was the racing contest on skates between William D. Cowan and Eddie Creary. This was a closely contested race until next to the last lap when Creary stumbled and lost headway he could not regain and Cowan won out. The forfeit was paid at noon today when the loser trundled the winner in a gaily decorated wheelbarrow along Beach street from the Arcade to the postoffice, while a laughing crowd looked on.

EPIDEMIC OF TYPHOID

RAGES AMONG THE RICH.

MADRID, March 9.—For some time past a persistent epidemic of typhoid fever has been raging here, and many of the people have been prostrated. Almost all the victims belong to the better classes, and even the Royal palace has not been exempt. Very few cases have occurred among the lower classes. This caused the doctors to think that the epidemic was not due to the water, or to the foods consumed by the latter classes.

A journalist suspected oysters because he had discovered a house in which nine were prostrated after having eaten some. Samples were accordingly sent to the municipal laboratory, and an analysis showed the alarming result that 72 per cent. of the oysters submitted contained the Eberth bacillus. A close examination of all the oyster beds has been ordered, with a view to discovering if they are infected or whether the bacillus is acquired here or enroute.

NEGRO MURDER SUSPECTS

TAKEN FROM METROPOLIS.

To prevent the possibility of mob violence and lynchings Sheriff Bowden of Duval county has quietly removed the three negro suspects, held on a charge of murdering Simon Silverstein last Saturday morning, from the county jail at Jacksonville and taken the men to St. Augustine for safe keeping. Mutterings of mob vengeance were heard about the streets of Jacksonville after the arrest of the men Thursday and the sheriff deemed it wise to get the suspects out of the city. Arrangements were made for the state militia to help protect the prisoners in case the services of the soldiers were needed. The prisoners will be held at St. Augustine until their trial is called in the courts in Jacksonville.

PLEASANT SURPRISE PARTY

GIVEN DEPARTING GUEST

Mrs. Emily Meiser of Paragould, Ark., a cousin of Mrs. Theo. A. Tice, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tice at the home of Mrs. C. A. B. Tice on West Magnolia avenue, was given a farewell surprise party by the latter, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Tomlinson, Thursday evening. Mrs. Meiser departed the following morning for her home in Paragould.

In order that the affair might be a surprise to Mrs. Meiser, she was taken to an oyster supper in Kings-ton, in the early evening by Mrs. Theodore Tice and on their return they found some 25 or more friends waiting to receive them. Mrs. Meiser was escorted to a chair, decorated in pink and white, in which she was seated while little Miss Ruth Tice crowned her with a wreath of flowers and Miss Florence Vann presented her with a bouquet of sweet peas. Following this enjoyable feature the evening was pleasantly spent with music and in social converse and the enjoyment of an appetizing luncheon.

PARADISE FOR THE ACTOR

Australia is the Place Where the People Make Real Gifts to Stage Favorites.

The actor, bronzed from a long sea voyage, was praising Australia, whence he had just returned.

"Australia's the place!" he cried enthusiastically. "If a pretty actress makes a hit over there, the warm-hearted Australians aren't content with passing flowers over the footlights to her. No, no. They pass her a box of gloves, a dozen pairs of silk stockings, a turkey, a fur muff, or a case of wine. Why, in Milparinka my wife got passed a Callot dress, a Lew-is hat and ten pounds of writing paper."

"As for me—"

The actor made a great gesture of arm and shoulder to indicate modesty. "As for me," he said, "I don't want to brag. I was never one to boast. At the same time, this I will say. No jeune premier ever made the hit I did in Parrabetta, Quirindi and the other one-night stands. Do you see these pants?" Passed up to me by a distinguished society matron of Murrumburrah. How do you like this shirt? It's one of a half dozen that I got from a Nedjee girl. And this fur-lined coat, my boy, is the real thing—none of your cheap and natty imitations—but real rat—genuine Australian rat. I thought I'd drop when a Guligong usher passed it over the footlights with the compliments of the Guligong Bachelor Girls' Social."

"Nervy" Woman.

A prominent citizen says the "nerviest" woman he ever saw was one who, instead of boarding the car promptly, inquired for the conductor. The conductor was inside the car collecting fares, but hurried to the rear platform.

"I beg your pardon," began the woman, "but is that car coming sooner as crowded as this one?"

"I can't tell from here," returned the conductor, almost savagely, as he gave the signal for the car to proceed.—Indianapolis News.

WANT NO CLELICAL CLOTHES

Devilish Refuse to Accept Parson's Costs, Fearing the Taint of Their Fellows.

A bundle of clothes from the mission lay on the tailor's table. "What did you send these things around to me for?" he asked. "They seem to be in pretty good condition." "They are in good enough condition," said the missionary, "but they will never be acceptable to the devils we expect to distribute them among until the ministerial cut is modified. Every coat in the lot has belonged to a preacher, and its style betrays its ownership."

"Most of the men who apply at the mission for hand-me-downs haven't much pride left, but they balk at a parson's coat. Unless actually driven to it, they will not wear one."

"Clothes twice as badly worn but of a business cut are chosen instead. Most ministers have hard work disposing of their clerical clothes. Conscientious scruples against masquerading in religious garb have nothing to do with these men refusing the ministers' coats. They simply don't want them because they dread the taints the coats are likely to provoke among their fellows."
